DID YOU KNOW?

Everyone knows that the library has books, audio books and DVDs to check out. Most people know that we offer programs for all ages. But if you have a library card, the library has even more to offer. For example:

Nontraditional Items - You can check out cake pans, a bocce ball set, fun sprinkler heads, cookie cutters and more. Coming soon ... a metal detector!

 Ancestry.com - You may access this amazing resource with national and international records from the library's public computers.

Opera Tickets - Each opera season we are able to offer discounted tickets for select Metropolitan Opera Live in HD screenings at Guild Hall in East Hampton.

Shelter Island Reporters - If you want to take a look back at the Island, we have bound copies of the Shelter Island Reporter dating back to 1966.

Museum Passes - We have free passes to The American Museum of Natural History, Harbes Family Farm in Mattituck, The Parrish Art Museum, The Children's Museum of the East End and The South Fork Natural History Museum and Nature Center.

Seed Library - In conjunction with the Sylvester Manor Educational Farm, we offer a large variety of seeds which you can "check out", plant, and enjoy.

pronunciator:  Pronunciator - Learn up to 80 languages with this interactive program. You can log on from home through our website.

TumbleBooks - This fun database has animated, talking picture books to teach children the love of reading.

Please visit us at the library to learn about these services and so much more!

LOVE MOVIES? CHECK OUT KANOPY

The popular on-demand film streaming service Kanopy is now available for free at Shelter Island Public Library. Library card holders can access Kanopy and sign up to start streaming films instantly by visiting <http://silibrary.kanopy.com>. Films can be streamed from any computer, television, mobile device or platform by downloading the Kanopy app for iOS, Android, AppleTV, Chromecast or Roku.

Offering what the New York Times calls "a garden of cinematic delights," Kanopy showcases more than 30,000 of the world's best films, including award-winning documentaries, rare and hard-to-find titles, film festival favorites, indie and classic films, and world cinema with collections from Kino Lorber, Music Box Films, Samuel Goldwyn, The Orchard, The Great Courses, PBS and thousands of independent filmmakers.

With the motto of "thoughtful entertainment," Kanopy provides Shelter Island Library patrons with access to films of unique social and cultural value; films that are often difficult or impossible to access elsewhere, and programming that features diversity, with a wide array of foreign language films.

For instructions and more information, please see Jocelyn Ozolins at the Reference Desk.

ADULT PROGRAMS

FRIDAY NIGHT DIALOGUES

Friday, May 4th, 7:00pm: Going Deep: John Philip Holland and the Invention of the Attack Submarine with Lawrence Goldstone

Going Deep tells the riveting story of inventor John Philip Holland and his decades-long struggle to bring his vision of an attack submarine to fruition. Holland endured indifference, skepticism and greed. Join author Lawrence Goldstone to learn more about this forgotten American hero.

Friday, May 18th, 7:00pm: Mission of Mercy for the Children of Puerto Rico with Dr. Linda Bruno
Dr. Linda Bruno, Director of Education for the Hispanic American Doctors Association, will talk about the Association's humanitarian project to provide Head Start programs in Puerto Rico with much needed materials (books, school supplies, etc.) lost in the devastation of Hurricane Maria.

MOVIE DOCUMENTARY

Tuesday, May 15th, Noon: Casting By - 90 minutes

The casting director is one of filmmaking's unsung heroes. Casting By shines the spotlight on the casting experts who made bold, creative choices that launched Hollywood classics. The film is jam packed with film clips, archival footage and a who's who of actors and filmmakers talking about their early careers. Learn more about such classics as Midnight Cowboy, The Graduate and Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid from a fresh perspective.

AUTHOR EVENT

Saturday, May 26th, 2:00pm: The One-Cent Magenta: Inside the Quest to Own the Most Valuable Stamp in the World by James Barron

In 1856, a batch of one-cent magenta stamps were printed, sold and forgotten. In 2014, the remaining stamp was won at Sotheby's for almost 9.5 million. New York Times Reporter James Barron tells the scintillating story of a one-of-a-kind object and the colorful characters who sought to own it.

SHAKESPEARE IN COMMUNITY DISCUSSION: HAMLET (PART TWO)

Saturday, May 12th, 12:30pm

Shakespeare's tragedy is filled with rage, lust, madness and more. Join writer Becky Cole to discuss Hamlet. New participants are welcome!

COFFEE AND COLORING FOR ADULTS

Saturday, May 12th, 1:00pm

Coffee, tea and refreshments provided while you color away your stress. We provide coloring templates and pencils. No registration is required.

ADULT CRAFT: FLOWER POT WIND CHIMES

Saturday, May 19th, 1:00pm

Join Casey Fehn and make wind chimes out of clay flower pots - the perfect decoration for spring! There is a $5.00 materials fee and registration is required. Class size limited to 12.

GREAT DECISIONS: TRADE AND POLITICS

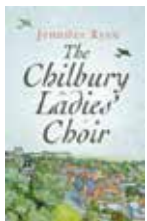

Thursday, May 17th, 5:30pm

Join us for Great Decisions, a discussion program about international issues from the Foreign Policy Association. This program is moderated by Kirk Ressler, retired Foreign Services Officer. A short film will be followed by a group discussion. For more information and to order a program guidebook, please contact Jocelyn Ozolins at jozolins@silibrary.org.

For additional information about adult programs, please contact Jocelyn Ozolins at jozolins@silibrary.org or 749-0042, Ext. 107.
