WHO'S WHO AT THE LIBRARY

Say hello to Jessica Montgomery. Jessica is responsible for the beautiful flyers advertising our programs. She is a "Jill of all trades" working behind the circulation desk, keeping the calendar up-to-date, creating displays, and much more. When she is not at the library, you may find her working at a local restaurant. In her rare time off, she loves reading, going to the beach, and spending time with her nieces and other family members.

GRAPHIC NOVELS - NOT JUST FOR KIDS

If you like intriguing art as well as good stories, it may be time to give graphic novels a try. These creative works cover topics as diverse as World War II, coming of age, the Islamic Revolution, and the Civil Rights Movement. With graphic novels the visual component is part of the story. A picture can portray mood, energy, and setting. Check out our graphic novel display this month and engage in a new kind of reading experience.
